

Daniel Sarabia

Daniel Sarabia is a Cuban ballet dancer throughout the world, including the Cuban national Ballet, Miami city ballet, Boston ballet and Bejart ballet of Lausanne.

He danced with ballet Concierto of Puerto Rico as a guest artist and many international tours around Latin America, Europe, and Asia.

Daniel grew up around ballet dancers, and his father was a dancer with the Cuban national Ballet. He was trained by his father, Alicia Alonso, Magali Suarez and Maria Julia Bermudez at the Cuban National school in Havana.

He also has performed Principal Roles with different companies around the world like.

Basilio of Don Quixote, Puck in A Midsummer Night Dream, Prince Siegfried in Swan Lake by George Balanchine, Company B by Paul Taylor, Giselle as Albretch, Paquita, and many more. Today he's a Principal Guest Artist and a professional Ballet Master around the World