

Daynelis Munoz

Professional Dancer/Teacher

Born in Cuba where she studied for 8 years Classical Ballet. She graduated in 2005 as a Professional Classical Dancer and Ballet Instructor and has been part of Professional Companies like Cuban National Ballet, Mexico Ballet and Tulsa Ballet.

Daynelis danced on stages in Spain, France, Colombia, Mexico amongst others. Gracing international stages as a Principal Dancer in roles such as Swan Lake, Giselle, Don Quixote, Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty, Romeo and Juliet, Infra, Serenade, Bayadera. Dancing pieces from internationally renowned choreographers in the world of art such as John Cranko, Edwaard Liang, Marcello Angelini, George Balanchine, Wayne McGregor, Ma Cong, Alicia Alonso. Daynelis has participated in different International Ballet Competitions in Cuba, Mexico, winning Gold Medals, including Youth America Grand Prix. Also judging professional dance competitions internationally.

Shes is currently a Guest Artist and Ballet Instructor. Daynelis has been invited to several Galas, Master classes and Ballet Productions in Chicago, Florida, Oklahoma, Missouri, Arizona, Ohio and Florida.